

Floyd Chester Harding

OCTOBER 29, 2018

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the sudden passing of Floyd. Left to cherish his many memories are his loving wife, Janet McTavish-Harding; daughter, Sandra Schenk; son, Colin Harding; siblings, George (Gloria) Harding, Barbara (Rene) Prevost, Charlotte Harding and Norma Corke; two grandchildren, Ross Schenk and Mitchel Schenk; and numerous nieces and nephews. Floyd was predeceased by his parents, Edward and Elizabeth Harding; his brother, Larry Harding; his twin brother, Lloyd; and daughter, Brenda Harding.

He was born in Sexsmith, Alberta and passed away in Red Deer, Alberta. He lived in Valhalla Center Alberta from 1945-1952, Beaverlodge Alberta from 1952-1957, Clairmont Alberta from 1957-2009 and finally settled down in Blackfalds Alberta from 2009-2018. He made his living as a mechanic, a farmer and a truck driver. Floyd loved going for scenic drives, watching curling, bull riding and chuck wagon races. Donations in lieu of flowers can be made to Lacombe Palliative Care Society, P.O. Box 5576, Lacombe, Alberta T4L 1X2.

Messages of Condolence

Janet,

I am so very sorry to hear about your loss. I never met your husband but I know he was a good man to have married you. If there is absolutely anything you need, help in the house, someone to run errands, a friend, please don't hesitate to call.

— Krista Weir

Our condolences to all the families in your loss of Floyd.

— Don & Donna McNally
