My condolences to Stephanie's family and friends. I'm so sorry for your lost, Stephanie was a wonderful person with a big heart. At Hamlet school, when we were kids, one time she saw me sad in the playground. She came over to see if I was okay, I said yes and she said "well you have Big Ears, does that help". Which made me smile and laugh. You will be missed Stephanie, RIP.

— Ben Bick

Hello all,

My heart breaks hearing this news. I knew Stephanie during high school days. I remember her being such a kind and sweet girl. I was brought home as the first bf in the house of her older sister Megan. She used to take great joy in bugging and teasing me (us) anyway she could. Being a younger sibling as well. I understood exactly what she was doing, as she was able to hit everyone of her sisters buttons with perfection and timing each day we were there. Always made me laugh. She was a good sister and daughter and I'm sure a great mother. Please remember she's not gone- just not with us physically anymore. Keep talking to her...

Love from my heart to yours,

— Jake Rycroft
