Laurie and I worked together for many years. She will be missed. She was a dedicated worker and loved her residents. We were so happy when she became an R.N. At Sunday morning breakfast we listened to Golden Oldies and sang along with our Residents. She was always bringing them little treats and making them laugh. We did a few shopping trips to Stoon and tried out lots of restaurants. AND we laughed a lot. I will miss you Old Friend. R.I.P. Until we meet Again. Cynthia
