Linda and I were so very sorry to learn of Tom’s recent passing. He was a terrific man we were lucky to have as a neighbour and friend in Arizona. I even had the pleasure of playing golf with Tom the day he got his last hole-in-one at Westbrook Village. He had many, many good friends and he will be greatly missed by all of us.

My deepest condolences to Marion and family. I was a golf pro at Pinebrook Golf & Country Club when Tom and Marion were members. I gave Tom lessons, and enjoyed his class and friendly outgoing attitude. He was a true gentleman who always put a smile on my face.
