

John "Terry" William House

APRIL 4, 2014

HOUSE, John William "Terry"

February 12, 1946 - April 4, 2014

Terry House, 68 of Airdrie and Edmonton, Alberta passed away peacefully at the Peter Lougheed Hospital in Calgary. Terry was an independent and complex thinker who enjoyed spending time figuring out how things worked. He was observant and inquisitive with a humbling appreciation for nature and life. Born in Edmonton the only son of the late Jack and Vivian House, Terry is survived by daughter, Shannon (Darren); grandson, Nicholas; son, Jayson; former spouse, Sandra; sister, Bernice (Allan); nephews, Stuart and Keith and their families; and sister, Dawn-Marie "Midge". Genuine, creative and private, he was a fun Papa, loving dad, dependable friend and supportive brother. His noble and generous spirit touched more lives than he was aware. He is deeply loved and profoundly missed. A Memorial Service will be held at a later date.
