Messages of Condolence

Agnes and Paul, I am sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He will be greatly missed by both of you. He was always kind and truly a gentle man. My thoughts are with you now and in the future. Agnes when you are ready, please continue to attend our support group. Your experience and journey as a caregiver is most worthy and necessary for you to share with others. Bye for now, Sylvia.

Agnes and Paul, we wish you peace, comfort and fond remembrance of your dear husband and father. We know you will miss him, but also know he is in a better place. We admire your devotion and great help to him in his time of need. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

— Joan and Larry

Dear Agnes & Paul: It has been a long journey for each of you with your devotion and attendance to Bill. Bill was always one of my favourite people - gentle, intelligent and a great sense of humour.

He will be missed by many.

Remeber we are always here for you.

Val
