Chad was born to Mark and Laureen on September 30, 1978 in Regina, SK. Chad's great love for family and friends was one of his best qualities. He never hesitated in opening his heart or his home to anyone. Being a loving Dad to his children meant the world to him. He loved camping, riding his quad and being in the mountains, as well as singing whether sitting around the table singing with family or on stage doing karaoke. Everyone who knew Chad had their own special connection that we will keep in our hearts forever.
