Messages of Condolence

You were my hero from before I could talk, taught me so much and still made me laugh til the last time we talked. You were a great father, man, and friend. And will always be my hero

I didn't know there was this online site for uncle Dick until just now. When I was little I remember really enjoying a holiday we spent at your house, and hoped we could get together more often. Dad getting a farm put a stop to vacations, but we did get to see everyone at reunions, at least. I always had great respect for uncle Dick and will sorely miss his presence at future reunions.i wish I could have spent more time getting to know him and all the family.
