You are in my mind so much, thinking of the shock you must be in. Deepest sympathy for all of you. Have tried to connect with Kay Kralkay, as I know she would want to know, will continue too.

We missed her visits so much when she moved away. Had been thinking of her so much and meant to text her, but my back has been so bad, so didn't., so regret not letting her know how much I appreciated her visits. The many memories you share will soften the grief, but only you can understand the loss.

She didn't waver in her spiritual belief, and was true to her convictions, she stood tall through it all. She would have appreciated your support Earl, I know how it feels. Wishing you comfort and peace in the coming days. With deepest care and sympathy, love Maureen.
