Jocelyn Claire Creigh-Cass

APRIL 5, 2025

Creigh-Cass, Jocelyn Claire into the presence of her Lord 05 April 2025. Born 27 February 1931 in Wellington, New Zealand to Richard Bowden Martin and Jocelyn Betty (Bailey) Martin. Predeceased by her sister Ailsa. She taught English for many years at Douglas College and then UFV. She retired in 1993 and moved to London, Ontario to join her husband Peter, returning “home” to White Rock in 2003. She held a lifelong love of reading novels that sustained her sharp mind and sense of humour.

She leaves behind her husband of 40 years Peter, daughter Louise, son Ben (Cyndi), grandchildren Ashley, Geoff (Maggie), Sarah (Blair), Bryden and Cameron and several Great Grandchildren.

The family would like to thank the Evergreen staff for their compassionate care of Jocelyn during her time with them.

“It isn’t what we say or think that defines us, but what we do” (Jane Austen, Sense and Sensibility).

Funeral service to be held at Holy Trinity White Rock 10 May 2025 2 pm.
