

Sean Patrick Jones

JANUARY 22, 2020

It is with very heavy hearts we announce the passing of Sean Patrick Jones on Wednesday, January 22, 2020. Sean was born in Calgary on November 3, 1967 and lived in Calgary for most of his life. He was the Chef at the Coach & Horses Ale Room for many years. A career he truly loved and took great pride in. Sean also loved golf and fishing in his spare time. He will be lovingly remembered and missed by his mother, Linda Lawton; his step-father, Robert Lawton; his son; Ryley; his sister, Robyn; niece Dezi; nephew, Tyler; Grandma, Lillian; and numerous aunts, uncles, extended family and dear friends. Sean was predeceased by his father, Randy Jones.

Details of a Celebration of Sean's Life will be announced at a later date.

Messages of Condolence

Sean you were a big part of running the place I love to go to most, seeing it through to success. We'll miss you as part of that family of friends. Rest In Peace, Sean.

— Mike Ball

My deepest sympathy goes out to Sean's family, friends, co workers and anybody else involved in this tragic loss. My golfing buddy, great chef, fellow seahawk supporter and giggling friend. I'll miss you buddy!

— Mick Prendergast

Oh, Sean, you were so very kind to me and the children - your stepbrothers. I am so sorry Linda for your loss. Please, please reach out to me.

— Colleen Jones

My sincere condolences to the Jones family. I had the pleasure of meeting Sean and my heart goes out to his loved ones. He will be greatly missed by many. Rest in peace.

— Dyan Wingo

Sean I am still in shock that I won't see you anymore at the coach. My condolences go out to you family right now and you will be missed ☐

— Holly Mcwilliams

Sean D. Cook. Loved your nickname. I think of you often, thank you for helping mentor me and advance my kitchen skills...you have played a large role in my becoming the Chef I am today...I miss you buddy. R.I.P. Cheffie...

— Francis Yeh

<https://www.myalternatives.ca/obituaries/jones-sean-patrick>

Printed on June 3, 2026