

Gordon Neil Kirk

JANUARY 16, 2018

With his gentle relief and our great sadness, we announce the passing of our beloved stepfather Gordon Kirk. After a short battle with cancer, he quietly passed away with our family at his side on January 16, 2018 in Regina, Saskatchewan.

He was predeceased by his wife Bernice and is survived by and will forever be treasured by his family: Cheryl (Mark) Davidson; Marla (Wayne) Rimbey; and Joanne (Dave) Breton. Affectionately he will always be remembered as 'SNORDY' to his 10 loving grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his mother Gladys; four sisters Marguerite, Gwendolyn, Doreen, and Vivian; one brother Arthur as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Gordon leaves behind a son Gordie and daughter Carol whom reside in BC.

Gordon's early years were spent in Edmonton. At age 40, he met Bernice and they were married 5 years later in 1983. In 1989 they moved to Meota, SK to spend their retirement years "at the lake". In January 2015, Gordon and Bernice moved to Regina to be closer to family to help care for them.

A Memorial Service will take place in the spring where Gordon will be set to rest peacefully and eternally next to his wife in their beloved Meota. Please contact Cheryl at 306-209-9929 for info regarding spring interment.
