Marc Anthony Klassen was born on December 3, 1992 to Wes and Renee Klassen.

Marc dedicated his life to Jesus at age 6 and studied his King James Bible to learn and grow in his faith with God.

Marc was multifaceted and had a variety of talents giving him many choices for a career. From wanting to be a Fire fighting guy at age 4 and a furniture builder at age 12. Marc's talents led him to be a guitar teacher, a prop creator and cabinet maker.

Marc used his passion for his cameras for wedding photography and making product commercials. His career was just starting when he worked for Zoon Media as a real estate photographer and videographer.

Marc loved making deep and purposeful connections with everyone he met. His kind and gentle spirit was often met with infectious laughter and lots of jokes.

My total sympathies to the whole Klassen family. Yes he died much too soon. I can’t even imagine what you are all going through. All I can do is remind you of what Jesus said,” Blessed are you who mourn for you shall be comforted.”
This will take time. May God wrap you all with his comfort and peace.- a cousin Verna

Hi Klassen family , it’s been a few years now and I’m sure it still and will always hurt. I am so delighted to know that he’s with Jesus. This is the best possible place to be and I know it doesn’t make the hurt go away for everyone left behind. I really pray for comfort in your hearts, as only Jesus can give.
