We were deeply saddened to hear of Monica's passing. Her lovely smile and infectious happiness made your family such a joy to be near. All who knew her will miss her terribly. Our deepest condolences to Wolfgang and the rest of the family. We are with you in thought and prayer through this difficult time.

Dr Wolfgang: So young to be taken away from you! Her silvery voice, self-accompanied on the guitar, made me sit up when I first heard Monica during one of our Bethany Baptist basement celebrations during the 70ies. My appreciative notch went up even further when she sang in Espanol. May God and your family comfort you in this difficult transition time. Hank

To the KLIEM Family,
Please accept our sympathies for your loss. As Christians, we have the hope of the resurrection and a life where there won't be any diseases causing death. The following five scriptures will bring consolation to you, as they did for us when we lost our fathers some years ago.
Isaiah 25:8; 33:24. John 5: 28, 29. Acts 24:15. Revelation 21: 1 to 4.
Sincerely,
Daniel & Shobhna Gautam-pratap (Annu's uncle & aunt)

Steven, my heartfelt condolences to you and your family. Though I never met her, you spoke so highly of her and I know you must be broken hearted. Loss of a parent is always hard however one so young is even harder. The Lord give you the strength and comfort you need at this time. You are in my prayers.
