From the very first time as a young child I knew that my uncle Roy was a very special person . Kind hearted and always having a sense of humour at the same time showing concern to all .

He was like a father to me and guided me though good and bad times.

I will miss him and think of him often and keep him in my heart.

I met Roy for the first time doing business and, so, naturally tried to be “professional”. After having our first beer together, I found out he’s just “one of us”... but a very special one of us. Condolences guys... going to miss seeing that smiling face!
