To all the Lagace families

So sorry for your loss. Aunt Anita was a great lady, a good sense of humour and very quit witted. I only hope that I have her energy it was awesome. I remember when I sat by her in church and she was wearing her Persian coat it was so soft I loved touching it. Also, the various pins that adorned her hair. She made you feel that you were in Montreal or Paris. RIP Aunt Anita.

Dear Lagace family,

Please accept my condolences.

I was in Le Bret only a few years, though remember your mother was involved with the CWL, the Legion, was a homemaker, raised 5 children, and all the while doing everything, doing it with personality and style. May it help to know you're being kept in thought and prayer, and may your memories keep her near.

Sincerely,

Pat (Salamon) Sinclair
