Dear, dear Reenie and Family. My heart broke when I read about Darlene, my Dearest Sweet, Loving and Kind Friend during our four years at Central Collegiate!! (She used to call me 'Stretch'!!) We laughed, cried, and shared so much of everything that girls share during High School!! We attended school dances, school football games at Taylor Field, and had many sleep-overs at your house on Reynolds Street!! We cried over the 'loves of our lives'! during those times too!!! Oh my, I am soooo sad in my heart.....but I know she is now with her beloved, Ron, and your dear, dear Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ripplinger.....My deepest sympathies to you, Reenie, your Husband, Darlene's two Sons and their Families, and the rest of the Family. May God Bless Each of You and I will never forget my special, loving Darlene, with her joyful giggle and her beautiful, dark brown eyes that were always sparkling with mischief!!.....Love, Linda ..... from many, many years ago.....xo

My wife and I express our deepest sorrow to the immediate family Dean, Lisa, Michael, April and the little one. I miss Aunt Darlene with all of my heart and wish and pray I could be there right now to say goodbye to her. My deepest heart toward Dean and Michael I cannot begin or imagine what you are going through. Thank God for all the precious moments you and all of us had with her. I love you both so very much and miss you! Lisa, I can't begin to say what a loving daughter you've been to Aunt Darlene. God bless you a million times over! To all that knew her, family and friends, may God bless you. God is love and we all need Him if we are ever going to enter heaven. If you don't know who the Lord Jesus Christ is, come to Him. Let God draw you to Himself and ask God for the forgiveness of sins and turn to His precious Son the Lord Jesus Christ receiving Him by faith. There is no other way to be right with God or to have peace with God, but through the Lord Jesus Christ. There's not a friend like the lowly Jesus, no not one, no, not one! Amen! With love in Christ Jesus, Thomas and Sue Koyani P.S. I will also miss her giggling laugh!

Im so sorry to the whole Laws family for this great loss. I loved my dear Auntie so much and always will! No matter what life threw at her she always got back up and praised the Lord in the process. She embraced her difficulties and for that she was a true warrior and hero!

Also when she hugged you she hugged you. You felt her love around you from the top of your head to the tip of your toes! Nobody gave a more warm and cuddly hug then her! It will be imprinted on my heart forever!

I love you xoxo

Dear Dean, Lisa, Mike, April and Hudson,

Words cannot fully express the deep sadness and sympathy we share with you.

I hope you find comfort in knowing that even though Darlene suffered so much physically in her life, she never suffered spiritually. Her faith was strong and it gave her a lot of comfort in the bad times. Your mom loved you all very much and had so much to be proud of in all of you.

Our sincere condolences.

Love,

Jim & Donna
