Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

— Lunette Papp

My deepest condolences for all of Larry's family. He was a genuine person and King of the 1 liners too me! He used his Witt to train and protect new and upcoming hands. I will continue to tell stories and make people laugh as that is what his goal in life was ,,,,I believe , And when you say his name....I don't know 1 single person that wouldn't smile because that is what he did was make everyone smile, You will be greatly missed, and thank you for everything you've taught. You gentleman are in a league above all ! Thanks for everything!

— Jason Hall
