

Margaret Liddell

JUNE 25, 2018

We are heartbroken to announce the sudden and unexpected passing of our Mom and Grandmother, Margaret Liddell at the age of 61. Mom was a loving grandmother, sister, aunty and a friend to many. Her spirit was infectious, and she brought her contagious laugh to everything she did. Mom will be lovingly remembered by her children; Janine and Stuart Liddell; her grandchildren, Kieran and Addison-Jane Wilson; her sister Ellen Safadi and brother Ronnie McLure; her nieces and nephews, Tarek and Nadia Safadi, Marriane Simpson and Christopher McLure; and many dear friends. Mom was predeceased by her parents Margaret Kane and Ronald McLure, and her best friend, Jane Clyne Nelson. A Celebration of Life will be held at Nose Creek Park Amphitheatre (Just off Main Street) in Airdrie, on July 25, 2018 at 11:00 am. All are welcome to attend.

I've have just today Saturday 29th December, 2018 read of Margarets passing, I was only speaking to her earlier this year, she was planning to come home to Scotland later this year or next year & we were going to meet up to talk about the old days, I remember when I was 15 years old, I was in Margarets house in Morar Drive Fernhill in Glasgow, we were kissing & cuddling behind her sofa, long before she met & married Sandy (the good old days), I am deeply shocked by Margarets passing & my thoughts & prayers are with her family at this sad time. We had many Laffs talking on Facebook about the good old days. I will miss u Margaret but Mibbee we can meet up in heaven when I get up there beside you .RIP Margaret ur loving friend David
