Messages of Condolence

Cindy and Family

We are truly saddened by Henry's passing. He is an unforgettable man....He never failed to leave you with a story and a smile. Your loss has been felt by his many friends and memories of Henry will always be cherished.

Dear Cindy & Family, there is another star in the heavens. I was very sad to hear the news, it will not be the same when I come home. Henry always had lots of stories to tell and a laugh to be shared at the neighbourhood happy times.. My wonderful memory was when Ryan sprayed Henry with the garden hose and he just laughed and went in the house to get dry shorts on. It is a difficult time for you now, please try to remember the laughter and love that you shared. Try to be strong and think of all the angels in heavens that will be laughing at Henry's stories, it is their turn for laughter now. Take care and be strong. XOXO

Dear Cindy & Family - we are thinking of you at this time. You were the best neighbors in Parkland that one could ever hope for. He is not gone. His spirit lives eternally with our Creator. Henry's time here was well spent and a gift to us all.

Thank you Henry.

Still Loved, Still Missed and Very Dear".

Dear Cindy: Henry's great smiles of pleasure at seeing anyone he encountered on his road trips around the village will be missed a lot. I don't know that there is anything one can say to help you through this time of such a loss. Kindest sympathies to you and your family.
