Charles David Livingstone passed away peacefully on September 28, 2022 surrounded by the love of his family at his side. Chuck was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, son, brother and uncle. Chuck was born in Glace Bay, Nova Scotia on January 13, 1937 to parents Robert and Olga Livingstone (nee Schroder).

Chuck was predeceased by his loving wife of 47 years Maxine “Mickey” Livingstone (nee Zopf) in 2004 and daughter Pamela Candace Livingstone in 1957. He was also predeceased by his parents Robert and Olga; siblings Lloyd and Roberta; and a special loving companion Audrey Huget.

He will be lovingly remembered by his four children: daughter Carmela Park (Don) and their daughters Kyanna, Talia and Maia; daughter Lynn Stone (Shawn) and their son Shawn (Dayna) and their children Ayden and Carter and daughter Katelyn (Travis) and their son Landon; son Bob (Trish) and their children Olivia and Ty; son Corey (Tracy) and their children Kamara, Alexis, Marissa (Brendon) and their daughter Mollie, and Shelton and his son Jack.

Chuck joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in January 1954 at the age of 17 and retired in 1987 at the age of 50 with 34 years of service as a Master Warrant Officer. During his time in the service, he was stationed at bases throughout Canada including Moose Jaw, SK, Trenton, ON, Edmonton, AB and Greenwood,

NS. His duties brought him opportunities to travel to Bermuda, Jamaica, Las Vegas and Gibraltar. After retirement from the Air Force, he returned as a Commissioned Officer in 1988 leading training for air cadets across the province. He retired again in 2001 with the rank of Captain after a combined 47 years of service.

It was during his first post in Moose Jaw, SK that he met the love of his life Maxine Livingstone (nee Zopf). They were married in December 1956 and went on to have five children. They lived in many places across Canada, finally retiring in Regina, SK. He and Maxine had a property at Buffalo Pound Lake, SK that they enjoyed over the years, spending time boating and fishing on the lake and hosting visits with family. Chuck and Maxine loved dancing and traveling together, especially taking ocean cruises. Chuck and Maxine always enjoyed visits with their grandchildren and cheered them on whatever their interests.

The family would also like to acknowledge Gloria Buchanan who shared companionship with Chuck during the last years of his life. Gloria and Audrey were angels who cared for Chuck in his later years and the family is eternally grateful for the love and support they shared together.
