Teina,

I knew your Mom only through the jewelry that she created (and that I so enjoy wearing) and her amazing gift of working with flowers. Her art reflected an inner beauty and appreciation of the beauty that surrounds us everyday. I see that you share her beautiful smile. My most heartfelt condolences to you and your family.

— Michele Langmead

We feel fortunate that we got the pleasure to meet you and your husband. We appreciate the secrets, advice, and life experience you shared with us. you did not only brought us smiles and lots of laughs every time you stop by but became close family friends. We also got to know some of your dreams and talents. you and your husband's good energy an similar wish for living a good life remains in us. we will take good care of the friendship with Wes who we know that tried his best to show you how much he loved you. he will stay with us. we promise to continue smiling with him.. our good friend please pray for those you love and love you back. we would also wish to ask you to pray for the queen of our home. thank you Georgina =)

— Emerald Cowboy

Hugs to you and your family Teina... Words always fail at times like these. Just breathe and feel her love encompass you always, in all ways!

Love,

Tracy

We had the pleasure of meeting Jean last October at the Games in St George, her smile was contagious and she beamed with happiness. So sad to hear the news, Thinking & praying for you and your family Wes. Till you meet again...xo

— Kevin & Tami Irving

Wes my brother you have my deepest sympathies and condolences. I am so sorry for your and your family's loss. I can't imagine what you must be going through right now. I only hope that my prayers along with the many others who hold you in high regard will comfort you. Take solace in the fact that you got to spend 46 years with this beautiful person. That's more than a lifetime for most folks. Remember the many wonderful experiences you've shared for these are blessings. I love you brother and I pray God keeps you strong in the midst of this tragedy.

Your brother,
Earnold Ingram

— Earnold Ingram

We were all shocked and saddened by the news. Our thought and prayers are with you and your family.

— Michael Dean

Our deepest condolences to Wes and the family on their loss. It was a great pleasure to know Jean as an instructor at The Bead Store and to be able to have learned some of her beautiful jewelry techniques. We will miss her sparkling personality.

— Linda Beaton and Lillian Kabatoff

Dear Friend (Wes)

After receiving an email from Keith regarding the news...I was shocked to learn the outcome...please accept our condolences.

May all the stars of our universe support you and your family in these times of mourning.

St Pierre family

— Denis

Our family is very sad to hear about your loss. Over the years Jean has become our lake Grandma. It was not only our kids she watched over. Grandma Jean had her eyes on all of us, and we all loved it. She will be missed and we will treasure every memory of beach day, every boat ride and every excursion we had with Grandma Jean.

— Billie, Troy, TJ & Tayler

Dearest Blanche, Wes and Family,

So sorry for your loss. We know you will miss her dearly! Our thoughts are with you today and in the days ahead.

— Ann McDonald & Sandy

As you know I had to write that poem for Jean to release the emotion that I felt in losing such a great friend . She will remain in our hearts forever and always.

Keith & Sue

— Keith and Sue McGhee

Wes and family,

We were all saddened to hear of your wife's passing. Jean, along with Pat, Wayne and yourself have been fixtures at our games in St. George. We will miss her energy and 'clapping'!

May your memories and support from family and friends help you as you start a new 'inning' in life.

Sincerely,

The Vancouver Loose Ends

— Terri Walker, on behalf of the Vancouver Loose Ends

Wes, our entire office sends our condolences to you and your entire family. We will miss Jean's smile and outgoing personality. Much love, the entire staff
