Hugh Lachlan Macaulay

DECEMBER 21, 2011

Our beloved husband, dad, granddad, brother, uncle, cousin and friend has gone home to meet his Saviour. He will be sadly missed by his wife Alice and sons: Iain (Kimberly), Hughie (Tanya) and Don (Arlene); grandchildren: Mairi, Aidan, Jack, Caeli and Dylan and his sister Marion. Hugh was a proud Canadian Pacific Railway employee all his working life.

Memorial service, Thursday, December 29, 2011 at 10:30 am in St. John’s Presbyterian Church, 1480 George Street, White Rock. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Hugh’s name to Dr.’s Without Borders or the Peace Arch Hospital Foundation.

You are invited to leave a personal message of condolence at the family's online memorial register.

Messages of Condolence

I was Hugh's secretary at CP Rail back in the late 70's and he was the best boss by far. I still use the ceramic bowl he gave me, as a Christmas present, one year at work. He was a wonderful man and my deepest sympathy and condolences to all the family. Maggie

I have fond memories of Hugh, someone I've known socially for a number of years. He had a gentle and caring personality, showing an interest in all that he met. I'll miss his conversations at our Men's Club, and I know that he'll be missed greatly by Alice and family and friends.

Please accept my deepest condolences.

I will always remember his kindness when upon returning to Vancouver after my first year of university in Montreal in 1982, he gave me a job at the Coquitlam car shops as a labourer. I'm not sure if there was ever a need for another labourer at the facility, but he gave me the job anyways. I will always fondly remember him for that.

I will be thinking of you on the 29th.

Dear Mrs. Macaulay, Hughie, Iain, Don and families,
We were very sorry to learn of your loss and send our heartfelt condolences to the MacAulay clan. I will always remember Mr. Macaulay (it’s hard to call him Hugh, having learned to address him that way in childhood) as a very kind, intelligent man with a quiet and endearing sense of humour. He was genuinely interested in other people and had a polite, respectful manner that is unfortunately all too rare nowadays. He was clearly an excellent parent (and I’m sure grandparent) as he made sure to instil these qualities in the next generation of Macaulays. We will be thinking about you today and over the coming weeks and months and wishing you well in this difficult time. Peter Milley, Sue and Ben

Dear Alice and family,

We always took pleasure in seeing Mr. Macaulay come to our dental office. He was a gentleman in the true sense of the word. Hugh always tried to make people feel happy and when he left the office, we would all have smiles on our faces. We will miss him and our condolences to you and your family.
