I have been thinking of Felix often since I heard of his death.We had infrequent contact over the years after my family moved to Dysart when I was 13 years old, but frequent times together until then. 7 years in a country school, family get-togethers--- xmas , easter, weddings , funerals, church--- and often I would cross the pasture that joined our farm to Uncle Joe and Anunt Susie's and then a quarter mile beyond to visit Felix and Helen. Only a few months separated the three of us in ages and Felix and I had lots of 'farm boy' stuff in common. His death shocked me into realizing the passing of time and a reminder of my own age.

My condolences to you Betty , your children and grandchildren , in your loss. A fine fellow. I have many vivid memories of our boyhood times together and can easily recall his voice as I write this --- probably telling me to quit the B.S,. and get on with it.
