I was saddened to hear of Margo's passing. I send my deepest condolences to you, Charlie, and to Shannon and Troy and their families. Margo was one of the kindest and generous friends. She had been my hairdresser and, most importantly, dear friend for nearly 35 years. Oh, the many laughs and tears we had together down in her salon! We shared the stories of our families and I know that her family was the pride and joy of her life, and having had the chance to know each and every one of you, I know why.....each of you have the same warm, loving heart she had. The days ahead will be difficult, but know that in spirit, she still walks with you. May the Lord bless you and keep you during this trying time.
