

John Brian Maxim

DECEMBER 19, 2017

After a brief illness with brain cancer, the family of John Brian Maxim are saddened to announce his passing on December 19, 2017 at the age of 68 years. He is predeceased by his mother Olga Maxim and father John Maxim.

John is survived by his children: Newly found son Jon Boxall and family; daughter Stephanie Maxim (Micheal Paul) and granddaughter

Kaylee Paul; son Michael Maxim (Egon Braga Quirino) and ex-wife Susan Schmitz.

Also survived by his siblings and their families Gerrie Mayer, Jacquie Maxim, and

David Maxim. John was a retired teacher and also retired part-time SGLA employee. He had a love for gardening, hockey (Montreal Canadiens), football (Raiders and Roughriders) and most importantly his little granddaughter Kaylee.

John enjoyed a family gathering farewell on Thanksgiving to see his family and friends. Our thanks to the Palliative Home Care team and William Booth Grace Hospice. Cremation. No funeral at his request.

Messages of Condolence

Dear Maxim Family, We want to send you our deepest condolences on the passing of John. It was good to visit with John in June at Carol's service. We were shooting the breeze so to speak and spoke about the old days and reminiced about the fun times we had with the family. May the memories of John bring peace to your family at this time.
