Messages of Condolence

Thinking of you today Barb. Courtney too! Your mom was always so good to me. She always made me feel like family. I cared for her a lot. I'm going to miss chatting with her at all the family dinners and such. It made me cry and smile today when I saw her Obituary. It made me sad because I think of how I will miss her. It made me smile because of her lovely picture, how she always had such a nice smile. That's how I'll chose to remember her. Will never forget her. xo

Our thoughts are with You Barb, and your family. Your Mom was and will always be an incredible person. I have so many great memories of her and your dad. Thank You for phoning Mom. She is struggling with life these days and may have seemed confused when you phoned but was clear about the call when i talked to her later.
