

Kirk Charles McLean

DECEMBER 2, 2019

Kirk Charles McLean, 56, of Mission B.C. passed away tragically on Monday, December 2nd 2019 in an accident at his workplace. He is survived by his wife Brenda and their two sons Devon and Jordan as well as his Mother Adele Dunhill of Burlington, Ontario, the place of his birth in 1963. He is also survived by his sister Kim McQueen, brothers and sister in-laws as well as many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Kirk was a Locomotive Engineer for CP Rail working from the Port Coquitlam office where he dedicating 32 years of his service. Living in Mission, B.C., for the last 22 years, he was a well-known volunteer in his children's school and later volunteering in the local amateur Hockey Association, assisting and later becoming a Coach.

A Celebration of Life will be held Thursday, December 12th, 2019, at the Best Western in Mission, B.C., from 4pm until close.

Donations to Diabetes Canada would be appreciated by the family.

You are invited to leave a personal message of condolence for the family.

Messages of Condolence

I am so saddened about the passing of my sweet cousin many prayers and hugs sent to all the family xxoo

— Kathy Freeman

Although Kirk & I didn't belong to the same union, as a fellow CP family we mourn his loss. We would like extend our condolences to his family & friends at this difficult time

— Nanthan M Larsen, Conductor CP Rail & Andie Bregman

I am so sorry for this tragic loss. Know that you are surrounded by love. Keep your cherished memories close to your heart. I am here to help in anyway that I can. Sending you lots of love. Kirk was an amazing man, husband, friend and Father. ☐
☐ ☐

— Lynn

<https://www.myalternatives.ca/obituaries/mclean-kirk-charles>

Printed on June 14, 2026