Messages of Condolence

I will miss my dear Friend, Marie. We shared many fun times together. I particularly remember our Canucks Games, and the great time we had, watching our 'Boys" play! You are at peace now, enjoying a nice Glass of White, with your Sisters', Daughter, and Gordie as well. Much love to Donnie, Chris, Shauf, Kaia, and Graham.

Marie, I wish I had the chance to hear your voice once more before you left. I will definitely miss you my dear friend. My heart always goes out to you every time we talk over the phone. You did your best to answer my call even when you could barely speak after your surgery. My heartfelt condolences to your beloved husband and children. Our friendship maybe limited to a few hours we share during our morning prayers before Mass but you know I love you & I will hold on to the memory of your soft gentle voice when you lead our prayers. Our morning prayer group prayed for you as promised. Be assured of my prayers for you. Am sure you are now safely secured in God's loving embrace. God loves you & I do too. Rest well my dear friend!
