Our heartfelt sympathy on the passing of Ross.

I remember him so well as a kid growing up in Tees and how he and Dennis Lea would wrestle with Ted and I ,hold us down and put grass in our face.

I remember him playing the piano at Dunc and Evas

Lots of good memories of Ross.

To brother Ted,Sisters Jackie and Jean and their families we are so sorry.Eva was my moms best friend and countless hours were spent at the Mellicks.Ted was and to this day is still my very good friend.

Even though years have gone by without contact with Ross or any of the Mellick family, I just would like to say my thoughts are with you at this time.

I did envy his comic book collection.

Glad to know you remembered your Tees roots.

Rest in peace.
