Darrell was such a kind and generous soul. My condolences to the entire family. It’s weird when I’m going through my Facebook memories and I see his comments. He was my fruit man from the Okanogan, he was the one that inspired me to try new recipes with all the beautiful recipes he shared on Facebook. And he makes the best blackberry jam there is. I’m going to be sad when I run out of it, because it’s definitely better than mine
