Badger was a great man. I will never forget the time spent with him on the FARM with the horses and the annual sleigh rides! Putting me on a horse for the second time in my life and slapping the the backside and yelling hang on!! Oh wonderful funny memories. Our deepest condolences to Doris, Jim & Lu, Jeff & Patty and the entire family! Wonderful man who lived a long life. Until we meet again.

Calvin and Roxanne West

— Calvin & Roxanne West

Our condolences to the entire Mitchell family. Uncle Stewart will be remembered for his great sense of humor and his tolerance of the "Yanks" from Iowa.

— Dave Peters

Condolences to Aunt Doris, cousins and family I remember uncle Stuart so fondly for his big laugh, love of horses, and good humor at being put in a canoe for the first time

— Patti Peters

Doris and family

My sincere condolences on your loss. Gus always enjoyed Stewart at their coffee meetings. He will be missed.

Eva Sanheim

— Eva Sanheim

My condolences Doris and family, Hugs and prayers

— Kathy Dreher

Sincere thoughts and prayers go out to Aunt Doris and the whole family. Uncle Stewart will be missed greatly.

Suzette Dann

— Suzette Dann

I oftentimes find myself thinking back on the time spent with my Grandpa Stu, on the farm and sitting around the table, and all the lessons he taught my sister and I, as we watched him and our Grandma growing up. If my son grows up to be even half the man you were, I will be so, so proud. We miss you so much, Grandpa. I hope you and Dad get to see each other again.
