

Dean James Morris

OCTOBER 19, 2019

In loving memory of Dean Morris, he will be missed by many. He lives on through his two daughters Alexis Dieter and Kaleigha Morrison; close family friend Terrence Pratt who he took as a brother; family Tammy Morris, Jackie and Shannon; grandchildren Cheveyo, Laveya-Ann Elijah and Angel.

He would have wanted to say this isn't a goodbye, we will be with each other again so hold our memories close. We will meet again, and to my daughters I love you two soo much. Be strong, my beautiful baby's Dad will always be with you.

Dean was a loving and carrying father, friend, brother and nephew. He always knew how to brighten up a room with his jokes and laughter. His smile was always comforting and warm.

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, cherished memories never fade because one loved is gone, those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there is a memory they live on in our hearts.

“ Only the good die young” - (quote from Dean Morris himself).

Messages of Condolence

Dean was an amazing person. Although him and I were on one crazy rollercoaster ride for the last 10 years, I never stopped loving him. I know that he loved me in the only way he knew how. I will miss his smile and most of all his healing hugs. My hope now is that he can complete his journey knowing how loved he is by everyone, especially his daughters.

I love you Dean, keep the party going until we meet again.

R.I.P. Dean. There are No words that can help to ease the loss of you in life. I'm really going to miss you brother ☐ I remember when I met you, over 20 years ago at Dumont. We stirred up a ton of trouble and lots of laughter after all this time. Dean was a solid individual who always had my back, was there for me in good times and bad. He had a great aura /personality that drew people to him, yes especially the ladies loved him, he had charisma and it didn't hurt that he was a very handsome man lol, with a great sense of humour, he was all heart. Despite all of the rough circumstances his whole life, he still helped anyone he could. Dean was a strong man who still prevailed, cracked jokes and comforted others. The light in his life, was when he had children!! I had never seen him so proud of anything as he was of them, he loved them so much. My thoughts and deepest condolences go out to his family, and friends. He will live on in so many of our fond memories, he will never be forgotten.
