Messages of Condolence

I want to send my condolences to all of the family. I'll always remember Lori as a totally devoted mother to her children. Whenever she could, she would travel miles, sometimes taking risks, to give support and help to her family. She could always count on Doug and Liz to be there for her.....I'm sure she appreciated their devotion. And now she can rest well.

I got to know Lori when my parents moved into the Lodge at Valley Ridge; she was their table mate and quickly became a devoted friend and champion for them. She was immediately interested in everything that was their life, including their family....and at my first meeting with her we chatted and 'spurred' as if we'd known each other for years. She was kind, cheerful, humorous, a tireless volunteer and a devoted mother and wife. It was my privilege to know her even for a short time.
