Predeceased by loving husband Norman, daughter Marilyn and son Russel, parents Flora & Oscar, son-in-law Allan and grandson David Wagoner.

Mum was born in Calgary and was very proud to be an Albertan, Canadian, no place better than here, she would say.

Mum, Dad and the family moved to Airdrie in 1964, where she lived until moving to Rockyview Lodge in Crossfield where she enjoyed her remaining golden years. Mum was a very special Lady, always happy, kind, generous, friendly, willingly helpful, fun & full of 'it', inspirational, strong, indomitable, Love.

Thank you to the staff at Foothills Hospital for caring for our Mum and the wonderful staff at the Rockyview Lodge, who loved her as their own Mum, Grandma.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Rocky View Lodge Crossfield, 120 Hammond Avenue, Crossfield, AB T0M 0S0, or a charity of your choice.

Messages of Condolence

Sorry to hear of Flora passing away. I did not realize how big the family is. She was well blessed having so many grandchildren and great grandchildren. You will have many memories to talk about "remembering when" Thinking of you, with sympathy to all the families, at this difficult time.

— Kathleen Verbeurgt

So sorry to hear that your mom has passed away. She had almost 100 years of a great life and you have many wonderful memories of her. Now she can be with Papa again. Our thoughts are with all of you.

Wayne and Marg Whatmore and family Whitecourt, Alberta.
