Fly to the angels Schatzie.....heaven awaits your heart.....you'll never be forgotten by all the people whose lives you touched with your joyous spirit, your infectious laughter and the grace you lived by.

— Scott Smith

My dear friend , I watched you live your life till the end. I am sorry you had to suffer and it breaks my heart when I think of how much you loved life and how life was taken from you too soon.
You will always be in my heart and I promise I will never forget you, until we meet again !
May all the sorrow we feel today be replaced in time with only sweet memories.

— Patty

Godspeed Dear Annelie.You were a wonderful inspiration in my life with your long fought battle. Sadly, you could not win this one. My heart is so sad. You were a lovely, beautiful and vivacious lady and I will always cherish my memories of you. My dear Co-op and Avon lady. I wish your family many blessings and fond memories of you and that they celebrate the way you lived life to the fullest always. Take care dear heart.

My thoughts and prayers to the family and friends of Annelie. She was my neighbor, Avon lady,and friend. She was a great neighbor and I missed her when she had to move. She was so friendly and full of life. Even when she was ill. I'm happy that she had James to laugh with and enjoy life! We lost touch after she moved, but kept in contact through Facebook. I'm sorry I missed her celebration of life! We will miss her!
