My dear sweet friend I moved back to Canada after the loss of my husband. You the sweetest most loyal friend a woman could ever have. Barb I have the Christmas apron you bought me yrs ago and I want you to know I have worn it every Christmas to make cookies even when I was in Missouri. We shared many conversations of life and loving. My dear sweet friend I am heartbroken,

To the Family of Barb Nagy,

Through Yvonne I met Barb and Barb came to be a true friend especially after Yvonne passed. Barb offered such encouragement and support, I can hear her laughter as we joked about the many battles in life. She was a fighter, a brave and kind woman. May God bless you and your family during your time of sorrow. With love and sympathy, Natalie, Alita, Sarah and Isaac.

Dear Mike and your sons and family

I had the opportunity of meeting Barb at my foster sisters (Denise Morin) daughters funeral. I remember Barb being so supportive and comforting to Denise:. She seemed like a wonderful person, compassionate and caring person and know she will be missed. Our prayers and thoughts will be with you at this time.

Barb's unique Spirit will continue to bless us who were already blessed to share some bits of her life journey. I think of her strength in dealing with various kinds of adversity, her wisdom and compassion, her longing for justice for everyone and our Mother the Earth. She loved Buffy Ste. Marie's song "Up where we belong". Go singing, dear friend. Catherine Verrall, Intercultural Grandmother
