You are invited to leave a personal message of condolence for the family.

Messages of Condolence

Please accept our condolences on the loss of your son, father and/or grandfather. Tucker's tremendous compassion, many strengths and endless wit was an inspiration to us all, and he will certainly be missed, leaving a void not replaceable by anyone. Tucker was an entrepreneur, a survivor, and an eternal optimist, but more than anything, a very special and long-time friend. We regret not being able to attend his Celebration of Life, but the early onset of winter will just not allow travel at this time. Our fondest regards, Cal and Barbara Bettcher, Edmonton, Alberta.

Tucker, you had become a big part of my life in recent years and I'm going to miss our time together. It's hard to say good-bye to my friend, but here's hoping you have better travels in your new life. Happy Trails, buddy.

— John L. Lukes

My deepest condolences to the family of my friend Tucker. I knew him for only a short time but he made a deep impression on me as being such a brave, kind and loving man who lived his life with incredible zest in spite of the daily challenges he faced.

He is at peace now and no longer suffering and I am happy for him because of that. I will never forget you, Tucker!
