Darren, so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. She was one of the first friends that i had when we first moved to Sparwood. We taught majorettes together and she spent hours making many many majorette hats out of bleach bottles,, we did several different crafts, camped together, took turns at each others pools, after going for a walk, she babysat for me, and we did a lot of preparing different foods together. I sure missed her, when you moved to Calgary. May she rest in peace. And I am sure she collected her angel wings, and spent Christmas with Dawn,Vern and her parents inheaven. Take care Darren.
