I met Noella at Westjet in 2012, she was my trainer & the minute I met her, I felt a familiar soul & we instantly connected. She was an amazing, positive brave woman who was loved by many with her cheerful positive attitude & laughter, she would do anything for anyone who needed help. She has healed many people with her positive uplifting energy. We had many laughs together & I will forever treasure my time with her. I cannot believe she is gone so soon, still hard to believe. My last text to her was at 7:43 AM Sunday morning & she passed at 7:44 AM. I insisted Noella come on my TV show "Soul Work" on Shaw TV, I knew she would make a huge impact for other people who are going through cancer to not give up etc & to stay positive & to visualize yourself healing etc. It's important to keep positive visions of yourself healing was the message we sent out on the show. For anyone who wants to watch Noella on YouTube getting interviewed, search under Jeni Cousins etc and look for Noella. I wanted to have Noella on my show because she was such an inspiration & helped many out there who were truly in need & to stay positive regardless of what happens. When I journey back to Hawaii, I will be doing a ceremony for Noella as a tribute for her. We talked about going together many times. I know she is leading the pack of angels in heaven & guiding others to help them along their journey & making a huge impact! I will forever treasure my memories with Noella. Love you girl, until we meet again xo Jeni Cousins

There are not enough words or feelings I can express, my beautiful friend Noella will no longer grace us with her presence.

I will forever remember Noella as my dear friend, and a wonderful woman she was to all her friends and family. She influenced so many of us in ways she never realized. Noella was such an inspiration to me, as I have never met a person for who had so much love, grace and strength.

Tears of sorrow are flowing as you will be missed; your love and positive spirit shines on us today.

My dear friend Noella you are finally home.

Dear Kasia, Family and Friends:

We were so disheartened to hear of Noella's passing on Sunday, just before singing the Liturgy at St. George's Ukr. Catholic Church in Edmonton. We sang that service for her. Kasiu, your mama was a talented, gregarious "BRIGHT LIGHT" in our world. Although we grieve with you, that she is no longer with us, we know that she's in a much better place now. She's laughing, making music, singing and dancing to her heart's delight, sharing her GIFTS with her Creator. We extend our sincere condolences to you, Kasiu. Know that she will be truly missed, and that we will remember her in our prayers.

No words can express how wonderful a person you are and how much you will be missed. You always brightened a room and listened with patience and always found the positive. I am so privilege to have known you and to have had you in my life. I know you will soar high in the heavens and always be watchful of us. I will always listen for the ring of your laughter and remember your smile. You will be missed my friend...until we meet again.

I only had the pleasure of being in Noella's presence during two separate visits to Calgary, most recently this past August. I felt an instant connection with her and she left an indelible impression on my heart. I will miss her beautiful spirit, positive outlook in everything she did, and the wholehearted way she embraced life. Fly with the Angels, sweet Noella...

We are very saddened at Noella's passing, only this past fall she volunteered and flew with Joe, a Congo African Grey parrot, to his new home in Toronto.

Noella and I flew many rescue birds, in-cabin with WestJet over the years, she made a tremendous difference to birds in need and the lives of many humans.

May you be at peace Noella, you will be deeply missed my friend.

— Gloria Fantin and Parrot Resource Centre directors

I just found out of Noella's passing.

I only met her once and for a brief moment. She flew my beloved African Grey Parrot from Calgary to Toronto for me. Even though our meeting was brief she had an enormous warm and positive energy to her. I liked her immediately. I am so very sorry for your loss. May your memories be a comfort to you in your difficult times.

You were there for us in my journey watching my dad with cancer suffer and always brought light and inspiration. We lost my dad dec 26 and I am saddened to learnt you passed as well but can only imagine what you two are up to in heaven together:) I love u lady!
