So sorry to see Gerry go. He has been a very good friend of ours and we are going to miss him. I was flying to Mexico when he passed and will be flying back the day of the funeral which I wanted to attend. My blessings and heartfelt condolences go with each and everyone including his wife Angie. When I get back from Mexico, we will come and see you Angie and if you need any help in any way, just let us know. God Bless each and everyone at this time.
