Loving God, You promised fullness of joy to those who seek Your face. Trusting in Your Word, we pray to You, for our sister, Catherine, who sought to further Your reign on earth by her service in the Catholic Women's League "For God and Canada." Though we are saddened that she is no longer with us, we entrust her to You with confidence. May she now live in peace, joy and happiness.

I'm late to comment here, but wanted to express my condolences on behalf of my late father Jerry, Joe's brother, my mother Ethel and my brother James. I have such fond memories of my Aunt Catherine and I was truly grieved to learn of her passing. She was a very special and kind person and I know she must be greatly missed. Much love to you all.
