Bob was born in Victoria, BC on April 28, 1943.

3 months early and weighed 3 LBS.

a travelling salesman to hardware stores all over BC.

He grew up between Nelson and Nanaimo, met and married his wife, Trudy.

They started out in Surrey, welcomed their son Douglas,
while he was working at the Co-op in Cloverdale.

His mother passed away in the late 70's.

Throughout the 80's He was the building supplies department manager at the Otter Co-op in Langley.

In the 90's they bought their Walnut Grove townhouse while he was working at Builders World.

He finished his career in sales at King of Floors.

Doug and Jennifer married in 2003, his granddaughter was born in 2008.

His father and sister Lorraine passed away in February and May of 2011. His grandson was born in 2011.

In 2015 when they were living in Walnut Grove, his wife Trudy passed away.

In 2018 he sold his townhouse and moved to a condo,
he loved living there and developed strong friendships,
he grew his tomatoes, strawberries, and his roses.
He enjoyed many fishing trips and travels to Vancouver Island to visit his extended family.

He sold his condo and moved into the Renaissance Independent Living.
He enjoyed living there, and made some wonderful friends before he entered the Langley hospital in July.

Bob loved nature, the outdoors, and especially being by the water which reminded him of his childhood growing up on Vancouver Island.
He was a kind man, who lived a simple life.
He liked gardening, and a strong love for Western TV shows like Gunsmoke and Bonanza.
Bob was a man who could talk to anyone, had an easygoing sense of humour and a kind, humble personality.

He is loved and greatly missed by his Son Doug, his daughter in law Jennifer & grandchildren
Sarah and Connor, extended family and close friends.
We will forever be grateful to all of those who loved him.

Our family would like to express a heartfelt thank you to Langley Senior Helpers,
