

Robert Charles Roberts

APRIL 20, 2018

You made it Dad, 12 days into your 92 year on earth, joining your grandfather as the oldest in your bloodlines...

An Angel got his wings...

"Where you go, I go. Where I go, you go.
You are my world. I am your world"

Forever Missed... Forever Loved...

Till we meet again... Angel to Angel

Messages of Condolence

Sending my condolences to Uncle Bob's family (Sharon, Russell and Madeline and their families). I have fond memories of Uncle Bob, my mom's (Betty) youngest brother. He always had a joke to tell, livening up any conversation he was part of. We so enjoyed his visits, always a whirlwind but entertaining. This picture is just as I remember him when he drove John, Audrie and I to Sunday School before he went west. Rest in peace, Uncle Bob. xxoo
