

Garry Ross

MAY 1, 2021

Garry was born in Regina, Saskatchewan on December 7, 1955 to the late Albert William Ross and Georgina (Jean) Gordon.

He leaves behind his daughters Chalise (Patrick) Ross and Tamara Mitchell; his brothers Donald (Bonny) Ross, Rodger Ross, Dwayne Ross, Shawn Ross and sisters Eyvonne (Trevor) Gordon, Dawn-Marie Hugh; stepfather James (Jim) Gordon, foster sister and brother Pepi Redman, Ricky Redman and his partner for many years Joan Sayer; his Grandchildren as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Garry was a diehard Rider fan. He was a proud member of the George Gordon Golden Hawks, the Regina Jr. B Braves and Dog Lake Raiders Hockey Clubs. He was an avid ice fisherman and loved the outdoors.

Garry had a prolific career as a General Contractor, many of those years were spent with his little brother “Chooch” at his side.

Due to Covid 19 restrictions a small Celebration of Life will be held with immediate family only. We would like to thank the family and friends who expressed their love, prayers, and condolences with us.

Messages of Condolence

RIP Big Brother, you were the first to come into this world with Mom and now you are the first to leave it and join her on the other side. Give mom a hug for me!!!

Love brother Donald.

I was so sad to hear you left us, my Brother. I wish we could have spent more time together over the years, but I'm happy with my memories that I do have of us. You have a gentle, kind, caring way about you that I found most enduring. You will not be forgotten. Much love to you Brother! Say hi to Mom and Dad. Sending love and prayers to the entire family ☐

— Dawn-Marie Hugh
