Hard to believe something like this can happen. I'll miss the great conversations like the ones we had riding in and out to Indian Head a while ago. Hope everyone is well, Doug, Marl, Teese and Del.

What I loved about Trace:

The twinkle in his eye

His long hair

His soft and gentle nature

His optimistic flow of words

His love of birds... all birds

His sharp memory

His vast knowledge of many topics

His hearty laughter

His love of nature

His fierce loyalty

His love of the skies

The fact that he told me I could be his other sister

What I did not love... Tracy, you left too soon

Our condolences to the Ross family. We have many fond memories; deer hunting, camping, cruising around in his Mom's malibu & listening to Cream & Hendrix, Martin football. That hearty laugh and remarkable ability to learn and remember those things that interested him - the velocity of a 222 swift bullet! He always liked the blues - Crossroads, Red House maybe he knew the pain of those songs. Rest in Peace, friend.

I am so sorry to the family of Drags who was my childhood friend! We went to public school together and hung out as young teenagers! I saw Drags last when he was working for the city and I was striking when I was working at the jail he came over to offer us strikers some tires to burn for our strike and was so happy to see me ! Then the strikers almost burned the trees down! Lol Well my friend your journey on earth is over but you are up in heaven and your journey is just beginning there! My condolences to the family. Take care on your journey Drags!
