

Leonard Joseph Sayer

SEPTEMBER 29, 2024

Leonard lived in many places around Saskatchewan during his life: on the 'Chicago line' outside Lestock, Green Lake, Regina and the place that had his heart & where he happily lived most of years: Moose Jaw.

Leonard enjoyed socializing with friends & family and was fondly known for arriving unannounced for a quick visit & a coffee.

Leonard will be remembered by all that knew him for his love of playing the guitar, driving a hard bargain any chance he got and donning his cowboy boots for a Saturday night dance down at the Cosmo or Timothy Eaton's.

Leonard's memory lives on in his 2 children; Lisa & Luke Sayer and by his 3 grandchildren: Livie, Lennon & Charlotte and Luke's wife Whitney, who look back on his life with love & happy memories of time spent together.

<https://www.myalternatives.ca/obituaries/sayer-leonard-joseph>

Printed on June 3, 2026