I only found out today of Marcel's passing, 4 months late, and I am truly heartbroken. I'm devastated for everyone who knew & loved him. The Marcel I remember was always the life of the party, got along with everyone, was the cool guy always charming the ladies but was actually a huge goof when you really got to know him, and was someone who always had your back. Genuinely one of the good ones. I considered him one of my best friends in highschool & we reconnected a few times over the years. I hope he always knew he could've reached out.

This is another tragic reminder to never pass up an opportunity to say what you need a person to hear...You never know when that opportunity may have passed you by. No regrets Marcel. I hope you have found peace my friend

— Paula J. Estin (Scobie)

You were a brother to me, and I'll always remember you, you always made a bad situation turn into a happy one with your never ending stories and your wise teachings..thank you for being my friend, I love you brother, until we meet again! I send my deepest sympathy to his family, what a large void there must be not that once he held us all together in a large hug.
