You are deeply missed already grandma but you have let us know you are still here with us but couldn't you have picked on Kyle at aggravation instead of me?!?

— Joyce MacKinnon

To Gerry and the entire family I send my deepest sympathies in your recent loss of Lois. She was a lovely lady with much determination and courage to have helped her through many years of disability and suffering. I know she would never let on just how much she was enduring. I have always missed her at the Golf Course as she was a joy to be with and one could always learn from her.

I grieve with you all.
