I can believe how a few short month ago were to cheering on our grandkids at the hockey rink and he was looking so forward to the trip away to Jamaica. He complained of that cough but never though it would turn so serious. Larry definitley would hate lying in that hospital bed but so very hard to say goodbye. Take Care, Hug Often, Talk & Share Stories. Did a great job on the roads all these years, wish his retirement could have been longer.

— Beth & Glen Corrigan

The service was beautiful today. We will all miss Larry. Hold on to your memories.
